A WORLD'S RECORD MARKS AERO MEET

Johnstone's Altitude Flight of 9,714 Feet Featured Closing Day.

STUNTS OF OTHER AVIATORS

Moisant Won $10,000 Prize by Fastest Time Around Statute of Liberty—Grahame-White in Events Yesterday.

New York, Oct. 31.—A "baby" Wright roadster, with Ralph Johnstone at the wheel glided gracefully to earth in the twilight at the close of the International Aviation Meet at up 9,714 feet, exceeding by 528 feet the baragraph registering a new world's record for altitude. The little machine of only 35 horse-power had been up 9,714 fet, exceeding by 528 feet the height attained in France on October 1st, by Henry Waynmalen, of Holland.

But Johnstone's sky climbing feat was not the only notable incident of the closing day of the meet. Claude Grahame-White, the athletic Britisher, who carries away the Gordon Bennett trophy, which takes the next international tournament to England, sharpened the sporting appetite with a challenge to John B. Moisant, of Chicago, for another race from the park around the Statute of Liberty in New York harbor and return. Moisant, who won $10,000 for his fast flight around the statute yesterday, ignored the challenge.

Then Grahame-White denied another chance for a visit to Miss Liberty, sent a thrill through the spectators, when, at the close of a speed race with J. A. D. McCurdy, of the Curtiss team, his propeller snapped, his monoplane dug into the greensward in front of the grandstand, turned turtle and buried the aviator underneath. He was urinjured and won the race.

Moisant's winning of the $2,000 distance prize offered by the Aero Club of America was the other big event of the day. He traveled approximately 87 1-2 miles in two hours. In landing after winning the event he smashed his propeller and broke a running wheel, but escaped unscratched.

"In was in a pretty purple haze up there," said Johnstone after he had finished his world record flight, "and say, it was cold. I had a couple of sweaters along besides my rubber suit and face mask, but then at times I felt as if freezing.

Several times I lost complete sight of the earth, but when I shot clear of the haze I could see away down below, buildings and residences which looked like toy blocks. I have been flying only since June, but it sure was the most satisfactory trip I ever made."

The Wright Brothers were jubilant at Johnstone's success. It was the first time he had ever flown their tiny roadster and he had set a new mark for aviators of the world.

As the crowds about the judge's stand cheered and cheered the announcement of Johnstone's wonderful air feat, J. Armstrong Drexel swooped down to earth. He had been battling in the clouds with the Wright pupil but had attained "only 8,370 feet." Johnstone had easily won the grand altitude event with its $5,000 prize.

It was an ideal day for the closing of the tournament. The air was cool and crisp, the sun shone from a clear, blue sky and there was just enough wind to stir the row of flags along the top of the big grand stand. The first event of the day began a few minutes after the sharp crack of the opening bomb. It was the two hour distance race for a purse of $3,500 donated by members of the Aero Club of America. The purse was split so there were three prizes.

The echoes of the bomb had hardly died away when far across the field the white wings of a monoplane shot up from the group and swept toward the starting line. It was Moisant and he was flying the same machine with which he won the Statute of Liberty flight. "Bud" Mars, of the Curtiss team, and Simon and Latham of the French team followed quickly and were soon chasing Moisant about the course rounding the red and white pylons at almost a mile a minute clip.

Mars was soon down with a broken engine and after a few laps Latham's engine became balky and he was forced to descend in front of his hangar. Moisant and Simon were alone in the air flying close to each other. When they passed the grand stand Moisant let out his speed a notch and shot ahead. Simon came to earth before the lap was finished and Moisant was flagged. Then it was announced that Simon had protested that Moisant had fouled him by passing too close to him in the air. The judges penalized the Chicagoan three laps, but in a few minutes he was up again whizzing around only a few feet in the air. Latham and Simon were once more in the contest and Moisant appeared to be keeping out of their way.

It was a queer race. When the finish flag was put up, two hours after the start, Moisant was declared the winner. He had been round the course

ANOTHER TRUST UNDER FIRE

Government Begins Investigation of So-Called "Bath Tub Trust."—Representatives For Both Sides Appear.—Details.

Pittsburg, October 31.—Government investigation into the so-called "bath tub trust," was begun here today before Lindsay C. Spencer, of Baltimore, who was appointed examiner by the United States court in that city to take testimony.

Edwin P. Grosvenor, special assistant to Attorney General Wickersham, is representing the government, while Attorneys Herbert Noble, of New York, Hartwell P. Heath and Frank G. Walles are for the defendants, who are the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing Company, of this city, and 15 other corporations.

Charges of violating the anti-trust law are alleged by the government and Edward A. Wayman, of this city, as a witness today, told of an agreement he drew up and which the 16 defendants signed, in which the corporations agreed upon a penalty for the violation of regulations controlling the marketing of their products. Wayman identified a copy of these agreements and one which was a jobber's license agreement, in which he was named as licensor. It was adduced that of 116 furnaces in operation the licensees paid the licensor a royalty of $5 a day on each furnace, for the use of various patents. When the licensee observed this contract, however, it was provided that the licensor shall return 80 per cent. of the original amount paid by the licensee, as rebate.

Wayman also showed that the sixteen defendants cannot sell any sanitary ware in the United States without first having a contract with him. He will resume his testimony tomorrow.

TO WIPE OUT DEFICIT.

Taft and Hitchcock Agree on Recommendations to Congress.

Washington, Oct. 31.—President Taft and Postmaster General Hitchcock reached an agreement today on the recommendations the President will make to Congress regarding a change in the second class postage rates as affecting magazines and other periodicals.

Mr. Taft will recommend that the magazines be required to pay the present rate of one cent a pound on all reading matter and a much higher rate, to be determined later, on the advertising pages. Each magazine will be required to send a copy of its current issue to the Postoffice Department each week, or month, as the case may be. There the publication will be dissected. The reading matter and the advertising sections will be separately weighed and the amount of postage computed by the number of magazines sent out. Newspapers will not be affected.

The average haul of the newspaper is but 300 miles, while the average haul of the magazine is 1,100 miles.

Mr. Hitchcock told the President today that the plan of separating the reading and advertising matter in the magazines is entirely formidable and he believed it to be the proper solution of the problem. The hauling of magazines in the hall has proved costly to the government and both the President and the Postmaster General believe it has entered largely into the deficit shown each year in the postoffice department.

The adoption of a new rate for the magazines, Mr. Hitchcock believes, will entirely wipe out the deficit and put the postal establishment on a self-sustaining basis.

President Taft is looking forward to a one cent rate for letter postages and hopes to recommend it before he leaves the White House.

The establishment of the proposed new rates as to magazines, the President believes, will do much to bring about the penny postage plan.

TROPHY TO BATTLESHIP.

Ceremony on the Nebraska, the First of Its Kind in the Navy.

Boston, Oct. 31.—On behalf of the Navy Department, Lieut. Commander L. C. Palmer, the inspector of target practice and naval aide to the President, delivered today to the battleship Nebraska in the Boston yard the President trophy for excellence in engineering recently awarded to this ship. The ocasion was one of great ceremony, the first of its kind in the navy. With a marine guard at present arms, the Secretary of the Navy's letter of congratulation was read to the assembled crew, of which the engineering division formed the front ranks.

In his letter the Secretary laid particular stress upon the importance of the competition in engineering among the ships of the fleet, which would mean that a battleship's radius of action is increased and that she can keep the seas at a longer period as the competition will lower the consumption of coal, oil and water.

Lieut. Commander Palmer stated for the Department that the new rules which would apply to next year's competition for battle efficiency, which include economy in steam engineering as well as excellency in gunnery, engineering counting 25 per cent., gunnery 75 per cent.

The panels of the trophy, which is of gilded bronze, shows the muscular figure of a fireman and a machinist at the throttle valve in the engine room. In the center panel there is a representation of the fleet at sea, which bears the inscription: "The trophy will be placed in the entrance to the engine room right among the men through whose skill and endeavor it was won."

STRIKE IS WORSE IN NEW YORK CITY

Several Thousand More Followed Express Men in Walk-Out Yesterday

CONFERENCE SET FOR TODAY

General Strike of "Everything on Wheels in the City," May Result.—Loss to Perishable Goods Continues Heavy.

New York, October 31.—The striking express men gained adherents today when between 1,500 and 1,800 workers of the Monahan's Express, the Boston Despatch and the Manhattan Delivery Company joined issue with them. The platform men of the American Express Company at the Grand Central Station and the same companies waybill clerks went out in sympathy. More than ten thousand men are now on strike demanding increased pay and shorter hours.

There were many small disturbances in various parts of New York City as strikers attacked wagons manned by strike breakers. Stones and missiles of all kinds were thrown and several drivers and their helpers were badly hurt. William Loy, a helper, on an American Express wagon, had his skull crushed with a brick and probably will die. All the disturbances were quickly quelled by the police. Many arrests were made and heavy fines imposed. Policemen sat with the drivers of the 315 wagons of all companies that made deliveries in the city and an escort of from one to three mounted patrolmen followed each of the wagons.

It was announced at strike headquarters this evening that a conference with Mayor Gaynor had been arranged for tomorrow when the representatives of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters will make formal protest to the mayor against the employment of the municipal police as guards on the wagons of the express companies. It was stated also that a meeting of the executive heads of the local unions had been arranged for tomorrow to discuss the advisability of calling a general strike of "everything on wheels in the city, affiliated with the unions, except railroads.

Over the river in Jersey City there was no disorder today. Governor Fort arrived in Jersey City this afternoon and had a conference with Mayor Wittpen.

His object was to determine whether it would be necessary to call out the troops to maintain order.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

Interesting Subjects Discussed—Seton. Wakefield and Taylor.

Toronto, Ont., October 31.—The best methods to be employed in safeguarding the morals and moulding the character of the boys of a continent, taken up at this afternoon's session of the 37th annual convention of the Y. M. C. A., proved to be one of the most interesting subjects brought up this year.

Dr. Graham Taylor, of Chicago, spoke on "Saving Them From Delinquency." Industrial and civic conditions, he said, were sources of delinquency, but above all else every child should enjoy the blessing of being born right.

Colonel W. B. Wakefield, of London, England, and Ernest Thompson Seton, advocated the boys' scout movement as a medium for training character in these days of highly specialized civilization and for saving boys from shiftlessness and ignorance.

"A boy in the tempest years between 14 and 18," said Mr. Thompson Seton, "must be treated through his own instincts. The old idea of never destroying, but directing a boy's energy is the secret of success."

Bishop Porter, of New York, spoke on "Safe Guarding the Boys From the Lack of High Ideals."

METHODIST AT BALTIMORE.

Address Wednesday by Theodore Roosevelt—Other Features.

Baltimore, Oct. 31.—The general committee of foreign missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church will hold its annual meeting here, beginning next Wednesday morning and lasting about a week. The feature of the gathering will be a missionary mass meeting in the Lyric Wednesday evening at which an address will be made by former President Theodore Roosevelt.

Former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks was to have been chairman of this meeting but will be unable to be present owing to illness.

All the "effective" bishops and missionary bishops of the church, who are members of the general committee, are expected to be present and make reports excepting Bishops Lewis, of China, Warner, of India, and Scott and Hartzell, of Africa.

Appropriations will be made for the work in the various fields. The total amount appropriated last year was over $1,000,000.

FATAL RAIDS IN PHILIPPINES

Eight Christians Killed by Natives—Attacks Have Been Directed Against Foreign Element—Report to Department.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Eight Christians, one an American, and two Chinese, have been killed and much property belonging to foreigners has been destroyed by the rebellious Manobos tribesmen in the Philippines, according to a report from Brigadier General Pershing, to the War Department today.

For almost a week or more two bands of about 100 Manobos have been terrifying the people on the west coast of Davao in southeastern Mindanao Island. Their raids have been directed against the foreign element. Two companies of the Third United States Infantry were sent to suppress the disorder. General Pershing does not regard the situation as serious. Labor troubles are believed by War Department officials to be responsible for the uprising among the Manobos. The latter are of the lowest type of Filipino, it is said. They are indolent and resent any effort to compel them to work. It is presumed here that the outbreak has resulted from too vigorous measures to meet this condition taken by foreigners owning plantations.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 31.—The troubles in Davo province, Mindanao Island, are due to the hatred and distrust manifested towards some of the planters by the natives, in the opinion of the Misses Metcalf, two Boston women, who have just returned from Santa Cruz, Davao province, after a residence of five years in the Philippines. The troubles are not in the nature of an uprising, the Misses Metcalf explained today, because the natives are so ignorant that they do not know of the existence of any government, their knowledge being confined to those things within a radius of ten miles of their place of abode.

Some of the planters, it was said by these sisters, do not understand the native character and their treatment of the natives is resented by the savages and murder often results.

The American planter named Geer, whose death at the hands of the natives was reported recently, was known by the Misses Metcalf. Geer was a native of Texas about 28 years. With his bride of a few months he went to Mindanao, where he purchased a hemp plantation. Mrs. Geer was about five years younger than her husband, and their marriage was an elopement, the parents of both opposing the marriage.

THE TIMES' EXPLOSION.

Witnesses Before Coroner's Jury Tell of Gas in Building.

Los Angeles, Cal., October 31.—Witnesses in the Times explosion case today testified before a coroner's jury that free gas was present in large volume on the night the explosion occurred. These witnesses, who were telegraph operators in the building, testified that they had lost their positions with the telegraph company because of having made their statements.

Simultaneously with this testimony, witnesses before the special grand jury swore that no odor of gas was detected in the building. The telegraphers asserted that everybody in the telegraph room smelled the gas and remarked about it. Arthur Ball, a linotype operator, declared, however, that if gas in quantity sufficient to cause an explosion had escaped from a defective main, some typesetting machines would have been put out of commission.

BIG STRIKE IN CHICAGO.

Four Thousand Garment Workers Out —Demonstration.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Four thousand striking garment workers attempted to make a demonstration in the loop, of downtown district this afternoon, but were turned back by the police without disorder. The strikers tried to cross the river from the Westside first at the Randolph Street Bridge and then at the Madison and Harrison street bridges. At each crossing they were met by mounted policemen and finally gave up the attempt.

TAMMANY IS MADE BRUNT OF ATTACK

Roosevelt and Stimson Waging A Warm Campaign in New York State.

NINE SPEECHES IN ONE NIGHT

Touch on the High Cost of Living and Other Campaign Issues—New Nationalism Again Discussed—Other Features.

New York, Oct. 31.—Theodore Roosevelt swept almost from end to end of Manhattan tonight delivering nine speeches in behalf of Henry L. Stimson, the Republican nominee for Governor. At the nine stops he followed close on the trail of Mr. Stimson, who had preceded him with an equal number of brief campaign talks. Both made Tammany Hall the brunt of the attack.

In his first address on the East Side, Mr. Stimson flung an arrow to the Democratic charge of the Republican responsibility for the high cost of living. "I understand," he said, "that our opponents are placarding the East Side with stories of high cost of living and attributing the increased price to the Republican party. The cost of living is not governed by causes altogether political, but by the laws of supply and demand. The workmen of London, Paris and Berlin are having the same complaint about high prices as in this country."

When Col. Roosevelt entered he was introduced as the "greatest citizen in the world." After an opening thrust at Tammany Hall, he said:

"I ask for the support of the men of the East Side because we are fighting your fight. We are trying to shape conditions so that every decent man can have the opportunity to show the stuff that is in him, so that any oppressed man may come here and have the chance to bring up himself and be dependent upon him in fair and honest treatment. A good deal is being said about new nationalism.

"Now new nationalism is simply the effort to apply other moralities to new and changed conditions, so as to secure for the workman reasonable wages under healthy conditions and not too long hours."

At the second stop, still on the lower East Side, Mr. Stimson promised rich and poor alike a square deal. Col. Roosevelt charged that those who are supporting Tammany Hall and the Democratic ticket "are the men who have been foremost in endeavoring to nullify the child labor law and who protested against the regulation of the hours of labor."

TEDDY AN RACE QUESTION.

Attorney Vertrees Asks Why Roosevelt Does not Talk on this Subject.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 31.—John Vertrees, of counsel for Secretary Ballinger and Pinchot controversy, today issued an address through the State Democratic Committee on the Tennessee political situation, in the course of which he says of former President Roosevelt:

"That pansophical, self-appointed school master, Colonel Roosevelt appears to be the only American who has ever tasted of the fruit of the tree of knowledge. Apparently, he has not only eaten of its fruit, but he has browsed on its twigs, chewed is bark and brewed a drink from its roots. I mention him now (and again) because he has recently spent a year in the heart of Africa, and the negro's home.

"Even an ordinary mortal, with this experience and opportunity would conclude he knew something of the subject, and in view of the gravity of the negro problem in the United States give his countrymen the benefit of its observations and experiences. Colonel Roosevelt, the extraordinary, of course, knows it all, or certainly cannot doubt that he knows it all.

"Ordinarily he is copious in advice, yet though fresh from his long stay in Africa he is silent, absolutely silent as to the negro problem and the negro race. Under the circumstances his silence is significant—perhaps more instructive than if it were broken.

"He eulogies John Brown, however. Can it be for other purpose than to have the negroes think that John Brown was a hero, because his effort was for them? But he is silent as to the negro race.

"Why? It is he has come to realize that the race differences are innate; that the negro race is not merely a belated race, a race of Yankees with black skins," and shrewdly refrains from saying so, because of the strength of the negro in Ohio, Indiana and other Northern States.

"He has hastened to announce 'by George' that he would run for President if he could carry one Southern State. Why a Southern State, and why does not Mr. Roosevelt give the South and the North his present views on the race question? There's method in silence."

ACCUSES STATE COMMISSIONS

Johnson Declares They Caused the Trouble Between Shippers and Railroads—Hearing Before the Commerce Commissio.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Stanley H. Johnson, assistant freight traffic manager of the Rock Island lines, today declared before the Inter-State Commerce Commission that certain State railroad commissions were the cause of the trouble between the shippers and the railroads. Johnson's statement was made while he was questioned by Commissioners Franklin K. Lane, and E. E. Clark, who intimated their belief that the railroads were not satisfied with regulation because it limits their power to increase revenue.

The hearing on the proposed advances in rates will then be reviewed in Washington before a decision will be announced.

In conducting the examination of Johnson, Commissioner Lane delved into the actions of the railroads previous to the existence of the various commerce commissions.

"Why did you not get up to this rate before these interfering commissions came into existence?" asked Commissioner Lane.

"State commissions are an embarrassment and the trouble between the shippers and the railroads could be adjusted in a satisfactory manner if the different State commissions were out of the way," replied Johnson.

"You are not satisfied with regulation because it limits your power to increase your revenue," said Mr. Lane, "and you were not satisfied with non-regulation prior to 1905, because you say that led to bankruptcy. Now, what will satisfy you? In 1906, you had an opportunity to set the rates higher, yet your own and other roads were placed in the hands of receivers."

"Yes," interrupted Johnson, "we might get along famously with your honors and colleagues if we did not have all these State commissions to contend with."

"Is it not a fact?" asked Commissioner Lane, "that you are laying on the Inter-State Commerce Commission the burdens which were laid on you by the State commissioners?"

"I do not see it that way," replied the witness. "There is a conflict between the State and the Federal bodies to control the railroads. If the responsibility were not divided it would be simplified.

MAY BE BANK ROBBERS.

Suspects Arrested at Mexico City Are Still Held.

Mexico City, October 31.—The Mexican authorities, aided by the American consulate, while watching for men suspected of being implicated in dynamiting the Los Angeles Times building, it is now believed, according to dispatches received from Acapulco today, have succeeded in capturing instead, one or more bank robbers wanted in Los Angeles.

This belief is based on the fact that the descriptions furnished by Private Detective Agencies of men sought for in connection with the bank robbery, seem to fit one or more of the suspects now held at the Mexican port.

A telegram was received here from the Farmers and Merchants National Bank, of Los Angeles, today, saying that officers of that institution desired the arrest of Wilson B. Evans, who was supposed to have left San Francisco on the schooner Kate. The suspects now being held at Acalpuco were taken from aboard that vessel. It is understood that $1,000 has been offered for Evans' arrest. The men were brought before the district judge by American Consul Marion Letcher and given a preliminary examination. They are returned to jail awaiting advices from Washington, the matter having been taken up with the state department.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 31.—Wilson B. Evans, mentioned in the dispatch from Acapulco, was receiving teller of the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank, one of the largest financial institutions of Los Angeles.

He left the city on September 17th, for his annual vacation of two weeks. When he failed to return an investigation of his accounts was ordered.

It was found that his accounts were many thousands short. The exact amount was not given out, but the bank officers said that Evans bond of $10,000 would virtually cover the loss.

The movements of the schooner Kate were uncovered through the search for the dynamiters of the Los Angeles Times building.

Cashier Seylor, of the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank, tonight said that the bank officers had good reason to believe that the man arrested at Acapulco was Wilson C. Evans, the missing cashier. The bank knows nothing about any accomplices.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Con O'Kelly, who has aspirations to meet Jack Johnson, was out-generaled by Hank Griffin, of California, here tonight, in a ten round go. Griffin knocked O'Kelly down the third round and opened a deep gash over his right eye a moment later with a savage jab. Griffin proved the better fighter, but O'Kelly's extra weight enabled him to stay until the finish.

GODWIN - MEARES JOINT DISCUSSION

Congressional Candidates in Sixth Congressional District in Debate.

IN THE ACADEMY LAST NIGHT

Crowd Clearly With the Democratic Nominee—An Hour's Speech for Each With Rejoinder for Mr. Meares—Campaign.

Possibly five hundred voters of New Hanover county turned out last night to hear the joint debate upon the political issues of the day between the Hon. H. L. Godwin, Democratic nominee for Congress in the Sixth North Carolina district, and his Republican opponent, Iredell Meares, Esq., in the Academy of Music, this city, last night.

The crowd was clearly with Godwin, as manifested several times during the evening, and was made up principally of voters, possibly less than a dozen ladies having accepted the invitation of the committee to be present. There was the merest fringe of black faces in the third gallery of the house but so far as this phase of the audience is concerned, it was strictly a lily white affair. The committee had not provided so well for the heating of the Academy and toward the close of the speaking, many were forced to retire from the pneumonia-laden atmosphere of the auditorium, but all told, local politicians had little to complain of in the way of an unsuccessful meeting.

Democratic Chairman Marsden Bellamy called the meeting to order and stated that it had been decided to dispense with introductory speeches as both gentlemen were well known in New Hanover. He stated that under the rules, Mr. Meares at this appointment would lead off in a speech of an hour, Mr. Godwin would follow with a speech of an hour and 15 minutes and that Mr. Meares would have a 15-minute rejoinder. He incidentally announced the speaking of Mr. Simmons in this city tonight and the appointment of Hon. T. W. Bickett, on Friday night of this week. There were seated on the stage besides the speakers and Democratic Chairman Bellamy, Mr. J. W. Brooks, chairman of the Republican County Executive Committee; Mr. E. H. Freeman, Republican nominee for sheriff; Postmaster Thos. E. Wallace, Mr. D. D. Lennon, Republican nominee for the State Senate; Deputy Marshal C. O. Knox, Woodus Kellum, Esq., Democratic nominee for the House; Mr. W. B. Cooper, president of the American National Bank; Thos. W. Davis, Esq., of the local bar, and representatives of the press.

Mr. Meares was greeted with applause upon his opening. Within the compass of an hour's speech, he said that it would be impossible for him to do more than touch upon the issues of the campaign. It was a most remarkable campaign in which the issues have been dropped and he charged this rather paradoxical situation to the Democratic leaders. The first 20 minutes of his speech was devoted to showing that Marion Butler is not an issue in this campaign, winding up by charging the Democratic leaders with political cowardice in not meeting him on the stump. He said that his views had experienced no sudden change, but that he had thought them out for years. Until 1898 he had voted with the dominant party on the single issue which had fortunately been eliminated with the adoption of the constitutional amendment. The time had now come, he opined, for an independence of thought and action. Prefacing his remarks with the statement that this country for a hundred years had been under a protective tariff system, with two brief interregnums, and attempting to show that Thos. Jefferson himself was a high tariff man, he engaged in a discussion of the theory and effect of the tariff, defending the Payne-Aldrich abomination, which he admitted was not perfect, quoting Thos. B. Reed, who said that no tariff bill was perfect except in the eyes of the man who had conceived it. He read an extract from Gomper's book to show why a tariff is necessary for the protection of the workingman at home and took up the schedule as to cotton and other Southern products, not unmindful of cabbage and Bermuda onions. He attacked Mr. Godwin's record in voting for the tariff on lumber and extolled Claude Kitchin for his vote for free lumber. Mr. Meares then produced a scrap book from which he read freely of Democratic family rows before the election, quoting the passage at arms between Democrats in Wake and paying his respects to the late Congressional convention at Wrightsville Beach, referring to the charges and countercharges that were made, denied, passed over and passed by before the primary. He produced the decision of the Supreme Court as to the Bud Tart case in which it was charged that Mr. Godwin was involved during the campaign, but refrained from being more explicit in his charges than that the decision could be taken and read by everyone. He gave the G. O. P. full credit for the National prosperity, extolled the principles

ON MONDAY NIGHT DIE WILL BE CAST

Distribution of Over Two Thousand Dollars in Prizes Will be Determined This Week-Details.

The great contest being conducted for the Star will close next Monday night at 7 o'clock sharp, and with only this one short week left it behooves every contestant to make the most of it in going after the promises made to them by their friends, and also getting in as many other subscriptions as is possible.

Every contestant must remember that every coupon must be in the ballot box at the contest office before the closing hour, 7 o'clock. Therefore all those out-of-town must make sure that their letters containing coupons for their reserve votes are mailed in time to reach Wilmington before the closing hour and in time to be placed in the ballot box.

This will not be, as was allowed them on the special offers where they could mail them up to 10 o'clock of the night of the close of the special offer, as every vote must positively be in the ballot box before 7 o'clock Monday night next or they will not be counted. This is extremely important so it is highly advisable that you fully understand it.

Representatives.

The last count that will appear in the paper will be next Sunday morning, so that all the votes that are cast after 12 o'clock Saturday noon will be counted by the representatives of the candidates after 7 o'clock Monday P. M. There will be no vote coupons counted at all after noon of Friday, Nov. 4th except the coupons that are issued on subscriptions, so that those having the five-vote coupons must have them in by that time in order to have them counted.

Each contestant is required to have a representative present at the final count to look after his or her interests, as the balot box will be turned over to them sealed promptly at 7 P. M., after which the Contest Department will have nothing to do with the counting of the reserve votes.

The final count will be made at some public place, where the public is to be invited.

There will be placed in the office of the Contest Department on Saturday a large galvanized iron ballot box entirely sealed except for an opening in the top just large enough to admit a large envelope. Into this box each contestant is to put an envelope containing all the reserve votes, together with a list of subscribers he or she has secured since getting the last vote coupon from the contest department, and the money for them. This money will be counted by the judges and votes issued on it after the ballot box has been opened by them, so that there will be no possible chance of the contest department's telling anyone else how many reserve votes contestants might have, as with only the contastant knowing how much money he or she has in the envelope, it will be an impossibility to do so. All mail received up to 7 o'clock will be deposited in the box unopened, so that we again urge every contestant out of town to be sure to mail their letters containing their reserve coupons and subscriptions in time to arrive before 7 o'clock giving time to be deposited before that time.

No five-vote coupons will be counted after 12 o'clock Friday, Nov. 4th. So they must be in before that time.

Moore, of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., on the subject, "Rambles in the Nile Valley," and the evening was a pleasant one for all in attendance. TRAGEDY IN RICHMOND.

Jack Jarrell Shot to Death by Saw Mill Companion.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wadesboro, N. C., Oct. 31.—Telephonic advices yesterday morning tell of a tragedy at Mangum, just across the Pee Dee river, in Richmond county, in which Jack Jarrell lost his life at the hands of Jesse Dennis. Both men worked at the saw mill of Mr. Elisha Dunn, near Mangum. Dennis is only 16 years of age while Jarrell is 25. The men were drinking and fell out over a bottle of whiskey. Along with several other men they were walking along the road near Mangum, when Dennis, while in front of the home of William Jewell, colored, seized an axe and struck Jarrell in the face, knocking him down. Dennis then jumped on Jarrell and took a pistol from the prostrate man' pocket and shot him in the back of the head. Jarrell died this morning at 9 o'clock.

Dennis was arrested soon after the shooting and he and one of his brothers and Clent Biggers were given a preliminary hearing at Stutt's store, Mangum, and bound over to court. Biggers and the brothers are charged with being accessories to the murder.

As Kirscher is in good standing with the American Automobile Association the entries were accepted.

THE FAT FROM THE FLOWER.

There is not a single kind of animal food which we might not replace with a vegetable counterpart. In most cases it is merely a matter of choice which is preferable, the animal or the vegetable. In the matter of cooking fats, however, the vegetable has by far the advantage. Lard is made from the fat of hogs,—often impure and unclean, always indigestible. Cottolene comes from the cotton fields of the Sunny South. It makes food that can be digested with ease, even by invalids. Cottolene is recommended alike by physicians and noted cooking experts as much more healthful and desirable than lard.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May be Sapping Your Life Away. Wilmington People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep your kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Wilmington testimony to prove it.

Mrs. W. W. Mince, 706 S. Fifth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very thankful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I received from their use. For a long time I was a victim of kidney trouble. The kidney secretion were unnatural and caused me much annoyance. My back ached almost constantly and some days I could hardly get around to do my housework. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I procured a box at Robert R Bellamy's Drug Store and began using them. They helped me more than any other preparation I had ever taken, strengthening my back and kidneys and invigorating my whole system."

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Another Postponement in Freight freight and is the outcome of a lengance—Cotton Gin Accident—Condition of Mr. Deaton—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 31.—Notice came to the North Carolina Corporation Commission today from the Inter-State Commerce Commission that the application of the order of the Inter-State Commission reducing the Norfolk freight rates to Winston-Salem and to Durham—the two North Carolina terminals—is again postponed, this time to February 1st from November 1st.

The reduction order involves about nine cents per hundred pounds of freight and is th outcome of a lengthy litigation by the North Carolina Commission with a view to breaking down the alleged discrimination by the railroad companies against North Carolina points as compared with the rates given "gateway cities" as Richmond, Lynchburg and Norfolk are termed. However, the reduction of rates to Winston-Salem and Durham was ordered in such a way as to prevent any such result as to North Carolian points in general.

"Uncle Wash" was possibly 75 years old, and had lived in Lumberton since the close of the war. He was a barber by trade but had been forced to give up his work for several years on account of infirmities of age. He was the first barber to use a razor on this correspondent's face over 30 years ago when Lumberton had only one barber.

NEGRO EDUCATOR AT DURHAM.

Booker Washington Talks of His Race at Banquet in His Honor.

Durham, N. C., Oct. 31.—Booker T. Washington, who is touring North Carolina, arrived in Durham today and was the guest of honor at a banquet tonight given by the Durham Negro Business Men's League.

The colored educator in a speech at a public meeting tonight expressed the belief that the condition of the Southern negro as a laborer was far better than that of the European. The press, he said, accents the crimes of the colored race, but he believed the public was beginning to understand the true conditions. "The mob and the lynching bee," he added, "go around the world; the deeds of goodness are not heard."

He declared that of all places in the world he has visited he has found none where the white and colored races living side by side, dwell in such satisfactory relationship as they do in the South.

Alluding to his trip through the South, Mr. Washington said that he had been overwhelmed with surprise and satisfaction at the cordial reception he had received everywhere.

"Good will and friendship must be promoted among us in the South, and the colored race must render such service that it will not only be tolerated, but will be wanted in every community. If course, I find many white friends who refrain from helping the negro on account of the social equality bugbear, but I want to say emphatically that nowhere in this country is the negro seeking to obtrude upon the white race, and especially is this so in the South. The more sensible and educated the negro, the more satisfaction he finds in company of people of his own race."

CONSUMPTIVE SYMPTOMS.

Newark, O.—"About two years ago my wife was in very poor health. For three motnhs she suffered from a bad cough which had settled on her lungs—she was run-down, reduced in flesh, and had all the symptoms of consumption. She began taking Vinol, and before the first bottle was gone she had improved in health—before she had finished her third bottle, her cough was gone and she was well.

"We cannot say too much in praise of Vinol.—N. L. Stebleton." (We guarantee this testimonial to be genuine.)

In pulmonary troubles Vinol shows its power for good. It goes to the seat of trouble, heals the inflamed surfaces and cures the cause of the cough.

In hundreds of cases where cod liver oil and emulsions have failed, Vinol has succeeded because it contains all the curative value they do—but its good work is not retarded by useless grease and oil.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

DEBATE AT CURRIE.

Brooks no Match for Johnson—The Debate.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Oct. 31.—The joint debate between Hon. Rivers Johnson, Democratic nominee for the State Senate, and R. F. Brooks, Republican nominee for the same office in the 10th Senatorial District at Currie today was disappointing to those present. From the gathered reputation of the speakers it was thought that the debate would be close, but Johnson in his eloquence and oratorical delivery completely overshadowed that little discourse that Brooks had, finishing to the extent that Brooks failed and refused to make his rejoinder and retired from the platform. Another day of Democratic victory in Grady township.

Starksville, Miss., Oct. 31.—Today's football game was hardly more than a romp for the Mississippi A. & M. team and they won from the University of Tennessee practically as they pleased. NORFOLK & SOUTHERN.

Demurrer of Re-Organization Committee Sustained by Courts.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 31.—State Judge McLemore has sustained the demurrer of the Norfolk & Southern Railway Company's Re-organization committee and dismissed the bill of the Zell-Van Dyke syndicate of Philadelphia. The syndicate sought for the fourth time to hold up final consummation of the sale of the old Norfolk & Southern properties under Federal court foreclosure to the organized Norfolk & Southern Railroad Company on the ground of previous contract of purchase. It was held that the contract was not one in which a court would be able to compel specific performance because of uncertain conditions that might have to be met in an attempted enforcement. Last appeal probably will be taken to the Supreme Court of Virginia.

AUCTIONEER FOR FRAUD.

Atlanta Man Charged With Violating the Postal Laws.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 31.—Charged with using the mails "for a scheme similar to a lottery", B. Bernard, auctioneer, was indicted by the Federal grand jury here today. On July 31st last Bernard raffled off a furnished house and lot in Grove Park valued at $10,000, the chances selling for $1 each. The winning number was held by Mrs. Bernard's brother, who lives in New York City. When the result was announced an indignation meeting was held by the Atlanta holders of tickets and a fund subscribed for an investigation which resulted in the indictment.

The specific charge against Bernard is that he violated the Federal postal laws in sending tickets through the mails to A. T. Yoder, of 633 Jefferson street, Roanoke, Va.

The flames have already reached the Star Ranch property, a famous health resort and the building on the Torrzalin ranch are threatened. The path of the fire is four miles wide. There are no casualties, but the money loss has already reached many thousands of dollars.

Tuesday, November 1, 1910.

I wish I were able to go from the East to the Tennessee line and tell this message to all the people. I have not long to live, I have children and grandchildren; but I say to you that no stroke of this right hand shall aid in putting the Republican party over these children and grandchildren. I say it because I have tried it in the past and, having tried it in the past and having found nothing but ruin and disgrace, I cannot help but fight it now.—C. B. Watson.

A New York Republican, wishing to be humorous and at the same time show his disapproval of his party, contributed one cent to the Republican campaign fund. The size of his subscription plainly indicates that he no longer takes much stock in the G. O. P. Evidently he is a consumer.

Vice President Sherman came to North Carolina to do some campaign spieling for Republicanism and Butlerism because he couldn't remain in New York and be a spellbinder for the New York Republicanism which put him out of business as one of its leaders. He is a prophet without honor in his own country and if New York Republicans are not willing to take his dope North Carolinians should not be expected to do so.

Col. Roosevelt is surprised that big business and conservative folks consider him a "peril". The man has no idea how his "big noise" sounds and is surprised when sensible people take him seriously. The fact is, Teddy couldn't do one-tenth of what he loudly alleges that he would do. We have seen him tried and the only thing that now forcibly recalls his administration to mind is a panic which began in 1907 and which in many particulars hasn't wound up yet.

Says the Charlotte Evening Chronicle: "At many periods during his life, Mark Twain had a struggle with poverty, but in the end he was 'well off.' His estate has been appraised at $611,136, all of which will go to his daughter, Mrs. Ossip Gabrilowitsch." Mark Twain's forte was to make other people laugh, but surely there must have been a laugh coming to him every time he tried to think of the name his daughter acquired in making her choice of a husband. Her name looks like a joke on the humorist.

The American people who are burdened by living expenses want prices fixed by the law of supply and demand. They are tired, to the point of desperation, paying the prices fixed by combinations which are enabled by Republican tariff laws to fix prices to suit themselves. Tariffs which absolutely prevent competition from abroad and enable combinations to prevent competition at home result in fictitious prices that in many respects are absurd as well as unreasonable.

Ex-President Roosevelt whipped out Vice President Sherman in New York to save the Republican party from the Sherman brand of politics. Having been turned down in his home State, there was no use for him on the stump there, so he came to North Carolina to canvass in behalf of North Carolina Republicanism and Butlerism. Wherefore, brethren, we are led to believe, that the Colonel put the right man out of business in New York. Therefore, brethren, the deduction follows that if Sherman is not the right kind of man to lead New York Republicans he certainly is not the right kind of man from whom North Carolinians can safely take political advise. We pass on Sunny Jim.

SQUARE DEAL BOSH.

If the campaign this year has done nothing else it has served to show that Roosevelt's square deal talk is all bosh. He has participated in the campaign in different States and everywhere he has been a detractor and a slanderer of other men. In several instances he has made slanderous assertions on the stump and when confronted with proof that he was mistaken he has failed either to apologize or make a statement setting the matter right. He made charges against the Democratic nominees for governor in New York, Connecticut and Indiana, and although furnished with proof that he had misrepresented them he has neglected to give them the square deal. However, nothing better need have been expected of him when it is considered that he charged Judge Parker with giving vent to a deliberate falsehood and failed to apologize after a legislative investigation demonstrated that Judge Parker had told the truth when he asserted that the insurance companies had subscribed hundreds of thousands of dollars to the Republican campaign fund.

It is quite possible that Col. Roosevelt's reckless campaign methods will get him into a libel suit and that will be quite a novelty if it doesn't amount to anything else. In Connecticut Col. Roosevelt publicly charged that Judge Baldwin, Democratic candidate for Goveror, held opinions that he never held and rendered judicial opinions which he never rendered. When confronted with absolute proof of the falsity of his charge, the Colonel refused either to qualify or withdraw his slanderous utterance. He considers a little matters of honor like that not worth his attention, but Judge Baldwin is so incensed it is reported he will sue his detractor for libel. Speaking of this report the New York Evening Post remarks:

"A wantonly litigious spirit is to be discouraged, but there is such a thing as doing a public service by standing up for one's legal rights. A summons served upon the Colonel to answer charges of slander would be useful, for one thing, in reminding him that he is no longer President. As such he was immune, and no one whom he unjustly attacked held legal redress. But today he is subject to the same pains and penalties as other private citizens; and if he attempts to impair the professional standing or take away the character of any other citizen, he can be held to responsibility in the courts. Sooner or later somebody will have to deal with him in this fashion, and nobody would be in better case than Judge Baldwin."

Such a suit might bring Col. Roosevelt to time and make him realize that if he is indeed an Ex-Presdient other people have character that he is bound to respect, either for the sake of his own honor or for the sake of the reputation of men whose character he stabs. The campaign has illustrated a bad trait in Colonel Roosevelt and it only confirms the reputation he made in the campaigns previous to this. It certainly makes a bad showing for any Ex-President of the United States when he makes for himself the reputation of being a man who does not respect other men and is not willing to do the honorable thing of correcting false impressions after he makes them.

By the way, has anyone stopped to think what a big difference there is between William McKinley and all the other Presidents who have followed him? The country always gets the worse of it after every assassination.

The enforcement of any law depends upon righteous indignation. Law violations which do not arouse popular resentment backed by a preponderating public sentiment accounts for the non-enforcement of some of our laws.

Says the Savannah Morning News: "What's the use of staying up in a balloon a long time if one can't tell where he is going or when he will get back?" The difference between taking a balloon trip and following Col. Roosevelt is about the same.

Col. Teddy is credited with saying that if the people decide against him in the New York election he will not kick. However, we will expect him to kick and paw up the earth, too, for he may claim that he misrepresented himself when he said he wasn't going to kick.

State Republican Chairman Morehead may be a very nice sort of fellow, but if he didn't know any better than to admit Marion Butler into copartnership with him in the control of the Republican party he is not the night kind of man to whom we can trust the political destinies of North Carolina. Chairman Morehead slipped up on Butler and fell down on his job early in the game.

Today great crowds will be attracted to Burgaw to take in the joint debate between Dr. Faison, Democratic nominee for Congress, and his Republican opponent, George E. Butler. Their joint discussions are said to be the rarest feature of the campaign in North Carolina, and reports are to the effect that Dr. Faison "always comes out on top." If he doesn't do so today it is because he has lost his speech.

A MAN OF FALSE PRETENSES.

The Hon. E. Y. Webb, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Ninth District, is nailing up the Hon. S. S. McNinch in proper shape. In Charlotte on Friday night, Mr. Webb delivered a powerful speech and was greeted by an enthusiastic crowd of voters of both parties. The Charlotte Chronicle pays Mr. Webb the great compliment of saying that "he is a vigorous speaker, possessing a charming personality and a fund of information of live questions, which coupled with his ability as an orator and debater, make him one of the strongest men of the State."

Mr. Webb is a young man and in electing him to Congress for several terms the voters of the Ninth District knew what they were doing. He is one of the State's ablest Congressmen and no doubt will defeat McNinch by a great majority. In his Charlotte speech he made a vigorous attack on the record of his Republican opponent, who has been posing as the advocate of protection "because it protects American labor." Mr. McNinch is a tremendously great friend of labor but the laborers who heard Mr. Webb's speech probably know better than to believe it.

Mr. Webb made a terrific exposure of Mr. McNinch's great anxiety for labor when he declared that in the Ninth District there are 105 cotton mills which Mr. McNinch wants to protect, and yet a few years ago this same Mr. McNinch imported between 300 and 400 foreigners to work at his brickyard while natives needing employment were going hungry. Mr. McNinch has a brickyard which employs a large force of men and up to the time he began to favor protection he made a fine record as the friend of labor! People with false pretenses deserve the exposure which Mr. Webb so forcibly applied in the case of McNinch.

Going up in the air seems to be popular these days, so when the G. O. P. goes up next Tuesday it will be doing the popular thing.

Next Tuesday is the day set for the skidooing of Marion Butler and Col. Roosevelt. We put Butler first, because he ought to be in the lead going where he can't come back.

A Boston lawyer has eloped with the wife of his law partner. Boston's aggregation of undesirable citizens is two less than it was. No doubt it would take many such elopements to really benefit Boston.

It is said that 2,000 people heard Vice President Sherman speaks at Charlotte. That is not bad, considering the fact that Charlotte has 34,014 people. You see, 32,014 Charlotte folks didn't take any of it in theirs.

FARMING IN COLUMBUS.

Big Frosts Sunday—Scarcity of Pickers—Land Values.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, Oct. 31.—Several gentlemen from Whiteville yesterday drove out through the Happy Hill and Smyrna sections of the county to see how crops were getting on. They say frost has surely gotten in its work and all manner of vegetation has been killed. The fields are white with cotton, and farmers say it is impossible to hire hands to gather it. Owing to the continued rains last Spring and Summer, crops had to be laid by in the grass, and besides crops were drowned out. Cotton will not turn out more than half of a good yield and the corn crop is also short. But those are enterprising sections and farmers will all make enough supplies to run them. Mr. James F. Thompson, who runs a five-horse farm, says his strawberry crop last Spring, after paying expenses for making and gathering, brought him in enough to pay the entire expenses of making his other crop, and which is a clear gain. Mr. Thompson says one season when berries were high, he sold $3,200 worth from 3 1-2 acres, and after paying all expenses cleared $2,200. But he has never since been able to do so well.

In conversation with the Star's correspondent a gentleman, yet in middle life, says he knew what is now known as the Sweet Farm, between Whiteville and Chadbourn, sell twice for 25 cents per acre, but it is now held at $100 per acre for the cleared land and $25 for the wooded land. This farm is now owned by Hon. J. A. Brown, but was formerly owned by Mr. Albert Council, of Wilmington. Several parties are negotiating for the place and it will not be held long at the price the owner asks.

There was never such a demand for farming lands in Columbus and several deals were closed last week. Nearly every day parties come here from South Carolina and other counties in this State seeking farms. The high price of cotton has given farming lands a big boost.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The prohibition law is all right but the sentiment that is supposed to be behind its enforcement is a humbug.—Durham Sun.

We are told that "Vice President Sherman was heard by 2,000 people in Charlotte." The whole town must have turned out.—Charleston News and Courier.

When Mr. Butler criticises the Democratic party and vaunts himself the champion of local self-government, we wonder if he invites a comparison between the Democratic party and the party who governed the cities of eastern North Carolina from Raleigh. Then he knew no north, no south, and wasn't particular about the color line either.—Greensboro Record.

Secretary MacVeagh, who is to campaign in Ohio next week, has made no political speech since Dec. 8, 1909, when at Boston he shocked Privilege and Plutocracy by saying: "The fact is the Republican party has changed its front and is marching toward lower tariffs." If the Secretary has really been cured it is the greatest triumph that the silence treatment has yet scored.—New York World.

An Illinois Republican politician says Senator Lorimer has lost nothing in the public estimation out there by the evidences of bribery in connection with his election to the Senate. If this be true, there is reason to be truly sorry for Illinois. The community in which political corruption and popular contentment go hand in hand is beyond hope of redemption, and, we had almost said, not worth being redeemed.—Savannah News.

North Carolina's "honored guest", Mr. Vice President Sherman, having come and gone, the papers are analyzing his speeches made in the State and without exception the most conservative are showing that Mr. Sherman is simply a Republican of the old school, who teaches the same old doctrine of stand-pat—speeches that did some good in the days before the voter discovered that he was being sandbagged. Mr. Sherman should post himself and keep up with the procession.—Greensboro Record.

The truth is that it is the Democratic party in New York State that has been placed on a higher footing than ever before and that the Republican party has never before been made responsible in an important campaign for a noisy self-seeker, who attempts to gain control of the political destinies of the State, with a view to elevating himself into the Presidency for a third term. It is not strange that thousands of Republican voters will either cast their ballots for John A. Dix, or remain away from the polls.—Hartford Times.

Everybody of the least intelligence and the slightest observation knows that the price of living in our country is too high, and that fact is making socialists by the hundreds daily. The only antidote for that virus is cheapness, and cheapness is the child of production to the limit in the factory and honesty in the counting house. Mr. Gary's proposition, that we must do without eggs for breakfast till they get cheap, will not do, for the people will have eggs. They will re-enact the law of supply and demand somehow.—Washington Post.

New York will be 300 years old three years hence. There was talk a while back of holding an international exposition in 1913 to celebrate the anniversary, but it has been passed up. The commission appointed to look into the matter has decided that the time is too short in which to make a really great exposition. That is what the report says. The cold fact probably is that the commission reached the conclusion that the American people are surfeited of expositions for the time being and want to rest a bit. Moreover, little old New York is an exposition in itself every day of the year.—Savannah News.

The versatile John Arthur Johnson, of Galveston, Reno, Chicago and New York, has butted into politics in New York. Johnson is variously known as "Jack" and "L'il Artha" and "de coon." He is the heavyweight "champeen" of all the prize fighters, and lately got a lot of Barney Oldfield's dust in his eyes. Next week, on Wednesday, he is going to blossom out as a stump speaker in New York City. He is a Democrat, and "is agwine to pint out to 1,600 cullud gents in Mistah Curry's ward why dey should vote for Mistah Dix and settle de leadin' issues of dis campaign". Jack says he has never made a political speech, but he is quite sure he can get away with "eloquential oratory."—Savannah News.

ROBBERY AT WADESBORO.

Hardware Window Smashed and Pistols Were Stolen.

(Special tSar Correspondence.)

Wadesboro ,Oct. 31.—The boldest burglary ever attempted in the town took place Saturday night about 10 o'clock. Some one smashed the plate window in the front of the store of Blalock Hardware Company. The window was broken with a large piece of cement. Three pistols were taken from the window. The strange part of the affair is that the street is brightly lighted and stores less than 100 feet away were open and doing business but none heard the glass kroken. Policeman Crouch discovered the broken window while on his roung shortly after 10 o'clock. Wadesboro has had considerable trouble with rowdies on Saturday night but the trouble has always been on a different street. The recent agitation concerning the enforcement of law had its effect Saturday night and the streets were much more quiet.

RHEUMATISM
WEAK KIDNEYS & THIN BLOOD

Not only is the blood the great nourishing source of our systems, but equally as important is its work of removing the waste of oxodized tissues which have been consumed in force and bodily heat. This waste is filtered out through the kidneys. When, however, the kidneys become weak and unable to perform their regular duties, the waste is allowed to remain in the circulation, soon forming uric acid which destroys the greater portion of nourishing elements of the blood and leave it weak and acrid. This imperfect blood deposits into the different muscles and joints the uratic impurity with which it is contaminated. Then the pains and aches of Rheumatism commence. The gritty formation which uric acid causes collects in the joints and produces the aches and stiffness which always accompany the disease. Likewise the muscles are coated and lose their elasticity, while the continual irritation to the nerves produces swelling and inflammation of the flesh.

SSS

S. S. S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to overcome the disease; it cleanses the blood of all uric acid poison and strengthens the kidneys so they are enabled to properly filter out the waste. S. S. S. is not only the best of blood purifiers, but a fine tonic. Book on Rheumatism free to all who write.

NOW FOR THE 700 MEMBERS

Y. M. C. A. Membership Contest Given Decided Impetus at Fellowship Supper Last Evening—Several Talks and Pledges for Work.

Although it will be necessary to secure 200 new members in four days, there is every reason to believe that when the membership campaign of the Y. M. C. A. closes Friday night of this week the association officers can proudly proclaim to the world that the 700 mark has been reached, judging from the amount of interest and enthusiasm shown by members and prominent business men who gathered around the festive board at the rooms of the association last evening. Practically every one in the room agreed to give several hours of their time each day until the close of the contest to secure new members and the efforts they will put forth will bring the desired results.

It was the time for the regular fellowship supper and meeting of the Bible Study Class, but this important department of the Y. M. C. A. work gave way to the membership committee for this occasion and in addition to the members of the class there were present a large number of representative business men and nearly every minister of the city. A splendid supper was served by the ladies, after which President W. W. Koch, of the Bible Study Class, made reference to the fact that a membership campaign is now being conducted, and stated that if there was no objection the Bible Study Class would give to the membership committee for the evening. Upon motion of Dr. J. W. Stanly, the meeting was turned over to the membership committe , of which Mr. Koch is chairman. Mr. Koch said that the membership contest was inaugurated some days ago and he was pleased to announce that during that time 65 new members had been secured. This was a signal for a hearty outburst of applause. Mr. Koch announced that it was planned to conduct a red-hot campaign during the remaining four days and it was hoped to enlist the interest of the business men present. He introduced Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and teacher of the Bible Study Class.

Dr. McClure said that he felt certain that what had been undertaken by the membership committee would be a big success, and then mentioned some of the advantages of the Y. M. C. A. for a young man. Dr. McClure said the Bible Study Class was glad to give the way to the membership committee and in conclusion said that he hoped the class would have more members when the membership of the association was increased to 700.

The next speaker was Rev. Dr. Wm. L. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, who spoke on "The Importance of Good Environment." Dr. Milton emphasized the fact that everybody is lonesome, especially the young man just leaving home and taking up his residence in a new place. The stranger can not do better than connect himself with the local Y. M. C. A. if he is in a town that has such an organization. The thing that appealed to the speaker most is that the Y. M. C. A. is a Christian club and every one needs club life. The Y. M. C. A. has men's games—just the kind of games that should appeal to and attract young men. In conclusion he said that he would give the work his best efforts.

Mr. R. A. Brand, of the Atlantic Coast Line, was the next speaker, and in beginning he said that he was glad to see the ministers around the table and glad to hear them talk on the work of the Y. M. C. A. The speaker, after referring to the good and wholesome influence of the Y. M. C. A., said that he wanted his boy to be a member of the organization when he grew older. The lad is now only six years old. Mr. Brand said that there were 200 boys in his department of the A. C. L. reporting directly or indirectly to him and that he would like to see all of them members of the Y. M. C. A. He said that when a young man applied there for a job and said that he was a member of the Y. M. C. A., his membership in the organization counted when it came to selecting applicants for any vacancies.

"Athletics," was the subject assigned to Rev. Thos. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace Methodist Church. He said that athletics was an important feature of the association work and declared that it was highly important that every person take care of his body which is his workshop. In conclusion he spoke of the wholesome atmosphere at the Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Dr. John M. Wells, pastor of the First Persbyterian Church, was the next speaker. Dr. Wells said that the most lonesome person in the world was the boy who goes away from home. It is not only a lonesome situation, but a dangerous situation. It is very important that there be thrown around the young men wholeosme and elevating influences. These good influences can be had at the Y. M. C. A. In fact, it is here that the association is doing its greatest work. It is a place where one finds that he can be a Christian and yet be a man; can be a Christian and have a good time.

The Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, spoke briefly along the line of Dr. Well's remarks. He said that the association proved a great blessing to him in his school days; first in New York State, then in Montreal and later when he was taking his theological course in Philadelphia. He was a stranger in each of the places and the lonesomeness was dispelled only through the Y. M. C. A. work and association there. He would like to see all the young men of the city connected with the organization.

The meeting was then turned over to Mr. L. B. Rogers, chairman of the finance committee, who asked that those willing to give two or three hours of their time each day until the close of the contest give their names to the chairman of the meeting. As stated above, nearly everyone present signified their purpose of giving liberally of their time to secure new members. Mr. W. B. Cooper, president of the American National Bank, said that he would give five memberships, if the committee found any deserving young men. This proposition brought forth enthusiastic applause. The meeting then adjourned and as stated above there is every reason to believe that the 700 mark will have been reached when the contest closes Friday night.

The membership fee now is $6 a year, but will be increased to $8 a year when the present contest closes. It is announced that those who come in during the present campaign, may pay $2 down and the remainder in two months. Notes for 30 and 60 days will be taken and will count as cash payments in the contest so far as the contestants are concerned. Another reason for joining the association at the present time that should appeal to the young men is that the gym classes are now starting the Fall and Winter work, as it is important that they take up this work at the beginning of the season.

THE SEWER CO'S. SIDE.

Engineers Will Appear Before City Officials Tomorrow.

There will be an informal meeting of the city officials in the Mayor's office tomorrow afternoon at 3 'clock for the purpose of hearing statements from the engineers of the Wilmington Sewerage Company relative to their estimate of the value of the present sewerage system, at the request of Mr. W. E. Worth, president of the company. Mayor MacRae stated yesterday that he would not call a special meeting of the Aldermen, but that he would notify all members of the board that the sewerage company had requested to be heard at that time and as the Aldermen want to get all the information they may there will probably be a large attendance. There will probably be other city officials in attendance also. It will be recalled that the Aldermen more than a year ago, upon the recommendation of City Engineer Humphreys, declined to purchase any part of the present sewerage system. The engineers of the company contend that no small portion of the present system can be used in the installation of a new system and they will present their side of the matter at the meeting tomorrow afternoon.

NO CUSTOMS HOUSE IN SIGHT.

Will be Fully Two Years Before Construction Work Begins.

Unless he is reappointed at the expiration of his present term of four years, Mr. B. F. Keith, collector of customs will hardly have the pleasure of doing business in the proposed new custom house for Wilmington, for it is thought that it will be at least four years before the building will be ready for occupancy. A letter received yesterday by a Wilmington citizen from Mr. J. K. Taylor, supervising architect, of the Treasury Department, has the following paragraph: "It is probable that construction operations will not commence at the site for nearly two years, and just prior to that time steps will be taken to secure competitive bids for the purchase and removal of the structures now on the site." To complete the building in two years after it has been started the government would have to push the work a little more rapidly than is usually the case in erecting public buildings. The information contained in the letter quoted will not be pleasant news to Wilmingtonians, who had hoped that the construction work would be commenced within the next few months.

INQUIRES ABOUT MR. E. FOSTER.

Left Swansboro October 21st for Wilmington—Not Yet Arrived.

Mr. E. Foster, of Swansboro, left that place Friday, October 21st, for Wilmington in a gasoline boat and as he has not yet arrived some fears are entertained for his safety. Dr. N. A. Culbreth, of this city, received a letter Saturday from Mrs. Foster stating that she had not heard a word from her husband since he left and that she usually receives a letter from him two days after his departure for Wilmington on such trips. She stated in the letter that Mr. Foster would come direct to Wilmington and to the Southern National Bank to draw money with which to purchase clams down the river and asked that Dr. Culbreth inquire whether or not Mr. Foster had called at the bank. Dr. Culbreth communicated with Mr. Chas. N. Evans, president of the institution, and learned that Mr. Foster had not called there. In his trip to Wilmington Mr. Foster would have to go outside for a distance of 30 or 40 miles and it is feared that something has happened to his craft. Friends here believe that Mr. Foster is safe, but circumstances have prevented his writing home.

Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. The young men are especially urged to attend the meeting, for immediately following the speaking a Young Men's Democratic Club will be organized. State Chairman A. H. Attorney General Bckett comes Friday evening and it is planned for him to speak in the open at corner of Third and Market streets. He will be introduced by Hon. John D. Bellamy, of the local bar. Mr. Bickett has also been heard with pleasure in Wilmington on former occasions and will very likely have a tremendous crowd to hear him Friday night.

ACCIDENT TO MISS KEITH.

Painfully Burned by Alcohol Lamp Explosion at Meredith College.

Many friends in the city of Miss Adeline Keith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Keith, a first-year student at Meredith College, in Raleigh, will learn with deep regret that she was painfully burned by the explosion of an alcohol lamp in her room at the college late Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith, in response to a telegram, giving briefly details of the accident, left last night for Raleigh At the time of the explosion Miss Keith was in her room alone, and in striking a match a portion of it flew off and into the alcohol, the explosion following quickly and before she had time to get out of reach of the flames. Her clothing was ignited and besides painful burns on her right arm she was otherwise injured. She ran from her room for assistance and soon attracted other young ladies in the dormitory, who helped extinguish the flames and assisted her back to her room. The accident is very distressing but Miss Keith's injuries are not considered particularly serious, her many friends will be pleased to learn. In a special delivery letter received early yesterday by Mr. Keith, President Vann stated that he thought her injuries were only slight, but very painful, but later the telegram came summoning the parents of the young lady to Raleigh.

Miss Keith was a member of the graduating class of the High School last year and her sister, Miss Lila Keith, is also a student at Meredith College this year.

The following special was received from Raleigh last night:

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 31.—As a result of a distressing accident at Meredith College Sunday afternoon, Miss Adeline Keith, daughter of B. F. Keith, collector of customs, at Wilmington, is in a very serious condition through having inhaled alcohol flames. She and a party of friends were using a chafing dish when a blazing match fell into a quantity of alcohol that flashed and Miss Keith attempted to put it out, inhaling the flame as she did so. The Raleigh Fire Deparment was called out, but the blaze was smothered out before the department reached the college. While her condition is serious, there is hope for her recovery.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Negro Man Given Six Months on the Roads for Larceny.

The principal defendant in yesterday's session of the Recorder's court was Chas. Jones, colored, charged with the larceny of a quantity of jewelry from the Kress store Saturday night, being arrested with the goods on him. The negro is thought to have stolen other goods from another store but no charge was preferred against him. Young White Man Taken to Darlington Yesterday Afternoon.

Sheriff Fields, of Darlington county, S. C., arrived yesterday and returned on the afternoon Coast Line train, taking with him Pat. Houston, a young white man, wanted there on the charge of assault with deadly weapon and carrying concealed weapons. Houston, it will be recalled by readers of The Star, was arrested here last week on the strength of a bench warrant received by the sheriff from Darlington county and was committed to jail by Justice Harriss without bond to await the arrival of an officer from the Palmetto State. It was at first stated that Houson would not return without extradition papers, but he afterwards announced that he would willingly return for trial. This information was communicated to the Darlington county authorities and the arrival of the officer yesterday was in response to the message.

Will Rebuild Steel Pier.

Announcement was made yesterday that the portion of the steel pier at Seashore Hotel washed away during the storm about ten days ago will be rebuilt in the Spring and the entire structure will be considerably raised. It was stated that a log washing up against the flooring of the pier is what caused the portion of the structure to give way. The object in raising the structure is to place the woodwork out of the reach of the waves in an ordinary storm, decreasing the danger of repetition of the disastrous result of the recent storm.

LIQUID CURES ECZEMA WHERE SALVES FAIL.

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25 cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief.

With the first consignment of fertilizer constitutents to this port this Fall, the British steamer Afghanistan, Capt. Cameron, arrived yesterday with part cargo of nitrate of soda from Celeta Buena, Calil, via Charleston, S. C., for the Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Company. The steamer made a long passage from the Chilian port, coming around Cape Horn, a distance of several thousand miles to the American ports visited by the vessels. There has been an unusual delay in the imports of fertilizer constitutents, most of it coming from Germany, where shipments have been temporarily stopped on account of trouble between the mine owners and the government. The vessel comes to Heide & Co.

ENJOYABLE HOLLOWE'EN PARTY GIVEN LAST NIGHT.

The Hallowe'en party given last evening by the Christian Endeavor Society of St. Andrew's Church at the church manse was a great success, and the most largely attended of all the entertainments of like nature that have been given during the Hallowe'en season, and an evening of genuine enjoyment was afforded the hundred or more young people who attended. The magnificent rooms of the manse were tastefully decorated, and as the guests entered the door they were met by a quartette of white robed "ghosts", while farther down the hallway on a shrouded throne sat the witch, who dispensed peanut hulls daintily tied with ribbon, in each of which was a written "future" of the one who held it.

A very nice programme which was thoroughly enjoyed, included a solo by Miss Carrie White, piano selections by Miss Agnes Chasten, and Mr. Paul Lupo; violin solo by Miss Annabell Campbell, and recitations by Misses Mary Houston and Marselle Smith, each of whom were recalled repeatedly. Dr. McClure arrived after this programme had been concluded and for a half hour delighted those present with several readings from "Uncle Remus," which, delivered in his inimitable style, were decidedly the most enjoyable feature of the evening.

Delightful refreshments were served by a coterie of young ladies, and at 11 o'clock the guests departed, owing to the ladies who so hospitably entertained them, notably among whom were Miss Leone Turley and Mrs. Norfleet, many thinks for an evening's entertainment which will be remembered until they eclipse it with another next year.

CO-OPERATION IS ASKED

Captain Brown Requests Masters of Vessels to Keep Engineer Office Informed as to Navigation Conditions of Streams.

A circular letter has just been issued by Capt. Earl I. Brown, in charge of the United States Engineer office here, asking that masters of vessels on the various streams in this district keep the engineer office informed as to navigation conditions on the streams on which their vessels are operated.

It is desired to know if for any reason boats are not making regular trips, the location of any known important obstructions or shoals, etc., so that as practicable the engineer department plant will remedy the conditions complained of.

The engineer office desires to maintain a continuous and uninterrupted navigation on the streams under improvement in this district, and any information relative to difficulties in navigating, etc., will be appreciated by that office.

The streams mentioned particularly in Captain Brown's circular are the Tar River, Fishing Creek, Contentnea Creek, Neuse river, Northeast river, Black River, and Cape Fear above Wilmington.

This is a matter in which all persons interested in vessels should keep in mind, and their co-operation with the engineer department will be a help.

Those in the vicinity of Newbern should communicate with Mr. Harry T. Paterson, assistant engineer at that place; and those in the vicinity of Wilmington should communicate with Mr. Robt. C. Merritt, assistant engineer at this place.

MR. H. G. FENNELL TO LEAVE

Chiek Clerk to Purchasing Agent of A. C. L. to Engage in Business in Atlanta.—Mr. O. L. Browne His Successor.

Though no official announcement has been made, it is learned from an authoritative source that Mr. Henry G. Fennell, chief clerk to the purchasing agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, with which company he has been connected for the past 18 or 20 years, has resigned his position and will leave within the next few months for Atlanta, Ga., where he will engage in the railway supply business.

Mr. Fennell is one of Wilmington's best known and most highly esteemed citizens and the announcement of his removal to another city will be received with genuine regret by hundreds. Mr. Fennell is at present in Chicago, where he went some days ago on a business and pleasure trip. It is understood that a large corporation has been formed or is in process of formation to handle railway supplies and that the Southern or Atlanta agency will be one of several that will be established by the concern. His removal to another city will be deeply regreted but his many friends here wish for him the full measure of success in his new business.

It is understood that Mr. O. L. Browne, who has been with the railroad in the purchasing department for some years and one of its most competent men, will succeed Mr. Fennell, is already familiarizg himself with his new duties.

The promotion of Mr. Browne is well deserved and comes as a fitting recognition of his splendid ability and faithfulness to every trust reposed in him. It is understood that Mr. Fennell plans to leave for Atlanta about the 1st of January.

FIREMEN KEPT ON THE RUN.

Three Alrams Sunday and Two Yesterday.—Damage Not Great.

The fire department was called out three times Sunday and twice yesterday in response to alarms, but there was no great damage from either of the fires. The first alarm was sent in early Sunday morning on account of a blaze on the roof of the house at No. 517 South Sixth street, occupied by T. B. Weedon. The damage was trival. A short time later they were called to No. 1308 South 13th street. Owing to the fact that the fire was in such a remote locality the building and one adjoining were destroyed before the firemen could get water on the blaze. The houses were valued at several hundred dollars each. Some two hours later a third alarm called the firemen to No. 1103 1-2 Gwynne street, house owned by Mary Stevenson and occupied by Emma Armstrong, and the building was considerably damaged.

Shortly before 8 o'clock yesterday morning the firemen were called to the residence of Mr. C. R. Yopp. No. 213 North Sixth street. The fire was caused by a defective flue and the damage is about $75. The building is owned by Mr. W. H. Yopp. A chimney burning out at the home of Mr. Ed King, Seventh and Wooster streets, was the cause of the fifth alarm yesterday afternoon. There was no damage.

Funeral of Little Son.

The funeral of Joseph W., the two year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Murrell, who passed away Sunday afternoon, was held at 10 o'clock Sunday morning from the family residence at Carolina Place, conducted by the Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St Andrew's Presbyterian Church. There were present a large number of friends of the grief-stricken parents. The interment was in Oakdale cemetery.

Theatrical

In Frederick Thompson's great American play, "Polly of the Circus", which comes to the Academy tomorrow, there will be seen on the stage a real circus, with dogs, ponies, horses, mules and a trained elephant. Among the six big acts are the Barlow Family of five, who are gymnasts and acrobats of international reputation; the Stickney Family of bareback riders, who have been great headliners with the largest circus on tour today; then the greatest sensation in recent years, "Little Hip" the performing elephant, an animal who does everything imaginable—distributes programmes on the street and in the lobby of the theatre, smokes a cigar, goes to bed, dances with his keeper and various other feats. There are also the dog and pony acts, the aerial acts, horizontal bar artists, juggling acrobats, clowns that do all sorts of tricks, and the audience imagines it is on the "lot" instead of a theatre.

This play was seen at the Liberty Theatre, New York City, for one solid year. Mr. Thompson has provided a cast of celebrated players and the scenic production is very elaborate.

Seats will go on sale at Plummer's this morning.

At the Crystal Palace.

The bill at the Crystal Palace this week is unquestionably one of the best ever offered at this poular amusement resort. The Crystal is getting better every week, is a familiar comment of the patrons. The Texas Quartette heads the bill this week and each of the four young men is an artist. They made a decided hit with the crowds yesterday. Hank Henry, "the music master," is also winning high praise. Two reels of motion pictures at each performance, and a change of programme every day.

At the Bijou Today.

"A Leap for Life" will feature the bill at the Bijou theatre today. It is a dramatic story built upon an incident of early Canadian history, dealing with the hardy settlers of Canada and the warring bands of Indians who made the white man's life one of great danger during the pioneer days. "Under Western Skies," is the title of another picture that will be of much interest to the patrons of the retreat.

At Joyland.

There will be two very fine pictures shown at Joyland theatre today. "The Black Hand," taken from one of the recent cases, and full of interest from start to finish, and "The White Squaw," a thrilling Western story, are the titles of the pictures that will be shown. The title of the illustrated song, "Good-bye Girlie and Remember Me." The programme changes daily.

COTTON RECOVERED THE LOSS

Active Demand From Spinners Stimulated on Crop Reports from South—Spot Closed 15 Points Higher.

New York, Oct. 31.—The cotton market recovered practically all of Saturday's loss during today on reports that crop damage accounts based on the cold weather in the South had stimulated a more active demand from spinners.

The close was very steady at a net gain of 20 to 26 points for the day. The market started steady at an advance of 36 points on October, which was influenced by the covering of a few belated shorts, and later sold at a net advance of 41 points while other positions opened two points lower to nine points higher. There seemd to be a large number of over Sunday selling orders around the ring attracted by Saturday's sharp break and increased estimates of the crop which prevented a better response to the relatively firm Liverpool cables on the more active positions. These offerings were gradually absorbed by bull support on covering, however, and while showing considerable nervousness the general tendency of prices was upwards until they reached a net gain of about 13 to 16 points. Around this level renewed liquidations caused a reaction of 6 to 7 points from the best, but the market firmed up again on buying by spot houses and rumors that spinners were buying contracts. Last prices were within a points or two of the top. Numerous private reports were received from the South during the day claiming that killing temperature had been practically general over Sunday, putting an end to any further development of the plant.

Many local operators appeared to take the view that a sufficient had been made before the development of the cold wave and this probably accounts for much of the selling on advances, but Liverpool attributed the relatively firm showing of the cables to the frost accounts and a feeling that a crop of even 12,500,000 bales might not prove a bearish factor in view of the big business booked by Manchester. Southern spot markets officially reported early were 1-8c. lower to 1-16c. higher; generally unchanged. Forecasts were for generally warmer weather in the South following the cold spell.

Receipts at the ports today 84,113 bales against 57,819 last week and 69,038 last year. For the week 400,000 bales against 391,188 last week, and 402,640 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 19,127 against 7,001 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 15 points advance. Middling uplands 14.55; do. gulf 14.80; sales 24,787 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed very steady.

DULL DAY IN STOCK MARKET

Spirit of Speculation Inclined to Droop. Slightness of Rise in Call Money Caused Late Recovery—General Conditions.

New York, Oct. 31.—The spirit of the speculation in stocks was inclined to droop today. Unsatisfactory steel trade advices, the money requirements incident to the November settlements and the credit and investment position generally and the near approach of the elections were factors in the action of the market. A later recovery was prompted by the slightness of the rise in call money and by covering of hsorts.

The action of the call rate did not show excessive strain on stock market resources from the requirements of the November settlements, the rate going no higher than 4 per cent. Relief is afforded also by the distinct improvement in the money position in London, which is reflected in lower rates for exchange in New York. The private discount rates declined again in London today. The Bank of England secured the bulk of the week's supply of South African gold, and opinion in financial London became confident that the necessity for a 6 per cent. bank rate in London is definitely averted. The likelihood of drawing gold from New York for London account for shipment to South America is correspondingly lessened. The sustained demands upon New York cash reserves add to the importance of this relief. The cotton and grain countries are still making large requisitions on the banking reserve centers, according to reports from interior money markets. The banking week in New York starts with a gain by the subtreasury at the expense of the banks of $1,477,000, keeping upon last week's heavy rate of depletion.

It is in connection with the loan position of the banks that this movement has its importance and in its effect on investments and capital supplies. The rising figure of the loan excess over deposits of the New York banks is not liked, especially as banks elsewhere in the country are still reported well loaned up to capacity. Statements that the steel trade went through the last of October at low tide with new business of the United States Steel Corporation at least than 50 of capacity, had a discouraging influence. Less hope was professed of any influx of orders from the railroad companies before next year. Reports of shutting down of tin plate mills were an additional factor in the depression of the United States Steel. That stock absorbed a third of the total dealings in the market and its movement was decisive in showing the general course of prices. It touched last week's low price but developed resistance at that level and in its recovery carried the whole list with it.

Bonds were steady. Total sales par value $1,665,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day were 468,700 shares.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, October 31. An unexpectedly large increase of the visible of wheat discouraged owners today and resulted in the lowest prices since harvest. There was a rally, however, owing to the strength of corn and the closed was comparatively firm at a net loss of 1-4 to 5-8c. An advance of 3-8 to 5-8 to 3-4 was shown at the wind up in corn, compared with the last sales on Saturday. Oats scored a gain of 3-8 to 1-2c. HUBBARD BROS.' LETTER.

Irregular Cotton Market Yesterday—Coditions in South.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New Yor, Oct. 31.—Liverpool did not respond to our decline of Saturday, so our market opened irregular with October higher, January lower and March higher Prices steadied during the day, closing some 24 points higher on reports that a bullish crop estimate would be issued to offset Mr. Cordell's estimate of Saturday. After the close the market was a shade lower. Mr. Cordell says regarding the frost he "thinks that we have 12,600,000 made, a later frost date would have added more." These sharp fluctuations simply show the sharp difference in crop ideas, first one and then the other prevails, causing quick fluctuations. Among these returning from the South the tendency is to look for a crop well above 12,000,000 bales. Meanwhile the Western and Northern houses are long looking for higher prices on smaller crop ideas, and the local traders expect that they will be able to maintain prices.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. GODWIN - MEARES JOIN DISCUSSION of the party in the Nation and closed with an appeal to the people to rally to the party of promise rather than one of inaction and obstruction.

The temper of a vast majority of the crowd was easily apparent when Mr. Godwin arose and was forced to stand and bow his acknowledgement of cheer after cheer from the audience. It was a pleasure for him to be with the people of Wilmington. It was always a pleasure for him to be here. It was not his purpose to engage in any cheap mud-slinging. His record in Congress was before the people. His record as an individual was before them. He merely invited the people to consider it. He was always loth to enter into a heated political campaign; it was not his purpose to array the people against one another, but he would calmly discuss some of the issues now before the people for settlement next Tuesday. On this campaign, he said, there was one happy feature. Mr. Meares would get what he wanted and Mr. Godwin would get what he wanted. He (Mr. Godwin) would be elected to Congress and Mr. Meares would get to be postmaster at Wilmington; that is, if Mr. Taft would be more generous than when he looked over Mr. Meares for the Federal judgeship. The speaker then went on to show why this campaign was one of the most important in years and twitted Mr. Meares on the fact that although Butler is not an issue in this campaign that he had taken a third of his time to explain why he was not running the Republican campaign this year. Mr. Godwin then told of Butler's past bond record and pointed out the danger of a Republican Legislature and the turning over of the election machinery to the enemy, which would virtually amount to a nullification of the amendment and the possibility of a return of Marion Butler to the Senate. He scathingly denounced Butler and Butlerism and made a strong appeal for the Democrats to sit steady and do their duty at the polls.

Taking up the Republican party in the Nation, he referred to its split and charged that Mr. Meares with taking passage on a ship that his own party leaders were leaving like rats. He told of the revulsion of sentiment against the robber tariff and took up the record of the G. O. P. and fusion in North Carolina during the days of reconstruction and in 1898. He then took up some of the tariff schedules and gave averages of highly protected articles and justified fully his action in voting for a paltry protection of $1 per thousand on lumber, a product of the South, when everything which the South consumes is taxed as high as it will stand. He showed that the Republican party has been consistently inimical to the South and its traditions. He closed with an appeal to Democracy to realize the importance of the situation and to vote their convictions at the ballot box.

Mr. Meares came up for his rejoinder, and although about half his audience had forsaken the auditorium, he made a red hot speech, charging his Democratic opponent with misrepresentation of the tariff schedules, extolling Taft, quoting proof that he was not a recent concert to the principles of Republicanism Nationally and appealing in a beautiful peroration for the South to get in the band wagon and face the rising sun.

Both speeches were good. Mr. Godwin justified fully the faith that is in his friends and supporters here and is taking care of himself admirably in his debate with Mr. Meares, who is admittedly one of the strongest debaters in this section of the State. The candidates make their last appointment tonight at Southport and it is confidently predicted that there will be no reduced majority for Mr. Godwin in the Sixth.

56 times, a distance of about 87 1-2 miles.

As he came to earth victorious, the accident occurred. His machine swerved, bumped along the green for a few feet and toppled over on its side. But Moisant did not get a scratch.

Latham was second in this race with 35 laps to his credit and Simon third with 27 laps. Moisant took away $2,000; Latham $1,000 and Simon $500.

With the distance event over, Johnstone and Drexel started skyward in quest of altitude. They were soon tiny white specks in the waning sunlight. In a special speed race, started shortly after Johnstone and Drexel had disappeared in the sky, Audemar in a yellow DeMoiselle was pitted against Garros in a white DeMoiselle. It was merely an exhibition and after a few laps they both darted across the field and came down gracefully together in front of their hangars. Garros had won.

The speed race between Grahame-White, in a monoplane, and McCurdy, in a bi-plane, demonstrated superiority of the monoplane as a racer. They both did ten laps of the course—a distance of about 15.53 miles. Grahame-White's unofficial time was 14.35.12; McCurdy's time was 25.43.05.

Grahame-White had finished the last lap and was gliding towards the judges stand when his propeller snapped. In a moment he was buried under a wrecked machine about which a cloud of escaping vapor arose. Helpers rushed upon the field, lifted the broken air craft and hauled the Englishman from the wreckage. He limped a few steps and waved his hand to eh crowds as a signal that he was not seriously injured. Five minutes later he gave every one in front of the grand stand thrills by stepping from the hospital tent into a Farman bi-plane which he manœuvred uncomfortably near the heads of the spectators. But he was happy having won $3,000 by taking the speed contest. McCurdy got $1,000. Aubrun was to be matched against Mars in a second speed race, but the latter aviator did not go up. Aubrun rounded the course alone several laps which netted him $500.

The red lights were strung across the field, the evening shadows began to fall and Johnstone had come to earth when Grahame-White appeared again before the stands. He circled about over the flickering lights the white wings of his bi-plane appearing like a Halloween spook dancing above the red glare from the field below. He soon disappeared toward the hangars in the dust.

Drexel Will ReSign.

J. Armstrong Drexel announced tonight at a dinner given to fellow aviators that he would resign from the Aero Club of America "in disgust" because of the ruling prohibiting Grahame-White from a second trial at the $10,000 Statue of Liberty flight won yesterday by John B. Moisant. He gave out a letter of protest in part as follows:

"I wish to protest against the action of the Belmont Park Aviation Committee in refusing to allow Mr. Grahame-White, the Englishman, to fly a second time for the Statue or Liberty prize. Their doing so is contrary to all traditions of sport and honor and as an American familiar with conditions of sport in Europe, I cannot allow an act of such unfairness to pass without protest.

"By their decision they have barred such flyers as Radley, the Englishman and Auburn, the Frenchman, from competing. As a general result it will be said in Europe that the Liberty prize was juggled into an American's hands. This will only be the plain truth according to the conditions of the contest as understood by the aviators.

"The plain fact is that the committee, seeing a chance to win the prize for an American, went back upon their word and by closing the contest and the official meeting stopped two men, DeLesseps and Grahame-White, from trying again, and the other five from even competing."

FEATURE TRACK EVENTS.

New York, Oct. 31.—Four thousand athletic enthusiasts went to Madison Square Garden tonight to witness 16 of the 32 track events on the two-night programme of the National Indoor championship of the Amateur Athletic Union. Although only two records were broken, every event on the programme was warmly contested, the rivalry between the New York Athletic Club and the Irish American Athletic Club showing in every event.

The Irish-American Athletic Club suffered a severe setback in the first event, the 300 yard run, when Melvin W. Shepard, after winning his semi-final heat, became ill and was unable to compete in the final. Sheppard started later in the 1,000 yard run, the feature of the evening, but after going about 500 yards was compelled to quit his rival, H. Gissing, winning the event in two minutes, 20 seconds.

The first record broken during the evening was in the 56 pound weight for height. In the event, Con Walsh, of the New York Athletic Club, established a new American record of 16 feet, 2 3-16 inches, smashing the old record of P. J. McDonald last year. The other figures, 16 feet 3-8 inch.

Th second record to go was in the final event of the evening—the pole vault for distance, in which Platt Adams, of the New York Athletic Club, broke the other record of 28 feet, made by Martin Sheridan in 1907, by 2 1-8 inches. The two mile race was a duel between Jack Monument of the Irish-American Athletic Club, and his club-mate, Tom Collins. Monument won.

The Irish-Americans failed to score in the junior events and were 14 points behind the rivals, the New York C. in the senior events. The points scored tonight stand: Senior events, New York A. C., 48; Irish-American A. C., 34; Juniors Pastime A. C. 19; New York A. C. 10.

STRIKERS EXCHANGE SHOTS.

Trouble Between Cigar Workers—Bystander Was Injured.

Tampa, Fla., Oct. 31.—An exchange of shots took place tonight in Ybor City, between a crowd of striking cigar workers numbering about 50 and a party of men who resumed work in the factories this morning. The latter party had just left the factory and were jeered by strikers. Words were exchanged and the strikers started in pursuit of the strike breakers who fired several shots which were returned by strikers. An old man, Alex Rawls, an innocent bystander, was hit. He received a slight wound in the knee. Five arrests were made. More than 100 strikers returned to work in the faitories today.
